Announcement

There will be a short review meeting at end of our church service today going over our 2019 event calendar for proper planning for all the special events throughout the upcoming year.

Please begin to pray for the upcoming church projects in January and February with the flooring and bathroom remodels downstairs in the basement, details will announced in each month.

The new Preaching Schedule for Mission night is now posted in back hall for anyone interested to see what churches will be present for 2019.
